Applicant Testing Eligibility

KNOWLEDGE EXAM

Applicants testing for instruction permit issuance, but not enrolled in an approved traffic safety education course meet basic eligibility to take a knowledge test for an instruction permit if they:

1. Are at least 15-1/2 years of age, and
2. Present sufficient documents to establish their identity and age.

Applicants under the age of 18 years of age do not have to take the knowledge exam if they obtain a waiver from the driver training school where they are currently enrolled. They must go to a DOL licensing service office for issuance of an instruction permit after they have pre-applied and provided their PERMIT ID NUMBER to All Seasons for waiver input. The knowledge test will be given once the applicant has successfully completed the traffic safety education course.

Supplied Student Permit ID Numbers and Permit Waiver's will be input by us once the student is enrolled and within 10 days of the start date of the chosen course. All students must be 15 years of age. Permits can be obtained from the below Licensing offices.

DRIVE SKILLS TEST

Applicants must meet basic eligibility for a skills test.

1. Are at least age 16, have passed an approved driver knowledge test and successfully completed a traffic safety education course through a public-school traffic safety education program or a driver training school program licensed by the DOL, or;
2. Are at least age 16, have successfully passed a knowledge test and completed a driver training course from a school outside of Washington State, evidenced by a course completion certificate or other documentation. The course requirements must meet Washington standards and may need to be approved by the Washington State DTS program, or;
3. Hold a license issued in another country that does not have a reciprocity agreement with the State of Washington and have passed an approved traffic safety education program. (Washington has reciprocity agreements with Germany, South Korea, and British Columbia. If the applicant is at least 18 years old and holds a license from a jurisdiction with reciprocity no testing is required.), or;
4. Are 18 years of age or older.
5. Holds an expired out-of-state driver's license. Applicants with a valid out-of-state license should be referred to a licensing service office.
6. Previously held a Washington driver license and are required to retest.

Any Individuals with limitations or medical/physical impairments are referred to the DOL for testing.
